

There is no excuse for the FCC to serve only the MPAA. There is no excuse for the MPAA, through the FCC, to be allowed to dictate public policy and technical standards such that fair use is only a memory. The FCC MUST NOT force copy-protection into digital television. Protect consumer rights!